English Masses

- This is the last call! Auction With A Twist is just a week away!
We are so excited to share this event with you, which will take place at the DoubleTree Hotel in Holland! A plated dinner, live dueling pianos, and a high-energy auction will provide you an opportunity for fellowship unlike any other! Your experience begins by purchasing your October 1st reservation after Mass this weekend or online at Auction With A Twist Tickets.
- Pope Francis has said, "A good Catholic meddles in politics". This weekend after Mass in the gathering space you can register to vote in the upcoming November elections; it's critical that we give voice to our Church's social justice teaching as we vote.
- There will be no daily masses this coming week but a prayer and communion service will be held in its place, as area priests will be out of town on a retreat.
